Associated Students of Saint Louis University
Student Government Association
Senate Bill (SB) – 065-12
March 28th, 2012

Intent and purpose: To amend the association's bylaws to create a Mission and Ministry Committee.

Whereas, the Associated Students of Saint Louis University Student Government Association represents the entire student body.

Whereas, there is one student appointed to serve as the student representative on the Board of Trustees Mission and Ministry Committee.

Whereas, it is difficult for one student to be able to represent the needs of the entire student body.

Whereas, it would be prudent to give this student an adequate forum to gather feedback from multiple perspectives of the student body and to help work on initiatives in order to best serve in their capacity as student representative.

Whereas, there is no centralized student voice on the specific topic of mission and ministry.

Whereas, there is a significant desire of the student body to give opinions and recommendations on the topic of mission and ministry.

Whereas, there is a significant need in the student body for a more in-depth understanding of SLU's unique Jesuit mission.

Whereas, this education is most effective when coming from other students.

Whereas, it would be prudent to have a sustainable, long-term committee of the Student Government Association to address these needs.

Whereas, there has already been a functioning group of students who meet to discuss matters of Mission and Ministry in an advisor capacity to the Board of Trustees Mission and Ministry student representative

Whereas, the Student Government Association has already had a standing Service Leadership Committee.

Whereas, the Mission and Ministry would absorb the responsibilities of the Service Leadership Committee.

Whereas, the Service Leadership Committee struggled to find a unique niche to fill.

Whereas, the Mission and Ministry Committee would expand the focus of the Service Leadership Committee.

Whereas, the four (4) subgroups of the Mission and Ministry Committee encapsulates the main aspects of Mission and Ministry.

Whereas, the Mission and Ministry committee would represent the student voice on these issues.

Therefore, let it be the Association's bylaws be amended such that:

R) ~~The Committee for Service Leadership shall:~~

- 1) ~~Be comprised of at least six voting Senators, one of which shall be nominated to serve as Chair, and up to four Committee Representatives~~
 - a) ~~The Chair shall be the Student Government Association representative on the University's Service and Justice Fellowship~~
 - b) ~~A member shall be nominated by the Chair to maintain regular contact with the Assistant Director for Community Service and Outreach in the Center for Service and Community Engagement~~
 - c) ~~A member shall be nominated by the Chair to maintain regular contact with the Faith and Justice Campus Minister of the Eckelkamp Center for Campus Ministry~~
 - d) ~~A member shall be nominated by the chair to maintain regular contact with the Graduate Assistant of the Doerr Center for Social Justice Education and Research~~
- 2) ~~Act as a voice of the students of the University concerning matters related to the mission of the University, service leadership opportunities, and issues concerning global and local justice~~
- 3) ~~Collaborate with the Vice President of Internal Affairs to manage Senate participation in service opportunities~~
 - a) ~~the Committee shall organize at least one service event each semester, in which all members of the Student Government Association shall participate.~~

i) Planned service events shall fall outside of campus-wide service days

R) The Mission and Ministry Committee shall:

- 1) Be comprised of at least seven members and the Board of Trustees Mission and Ministry student representative, who shall serve as Chair
 - a) The Chair shall maintain regular contact with the University Vice President of Mission and Ministry
 - b) A member shall be nominated by a majority of the Committee to maintain regular contact and to act as liaison with the Director and/or other appropriate administrators of the following departments:
 - i) Center for Service and Community Engagement
 - ii) Eckelkamp Center for Campus Ministry
 - iii) Doerr Center for Social Justice Education and Research
 - c) A member shall be appointed by the Association President to serve as the Student Government Association representative on the University's Service and Justice Fellowship.
 - e.) The chair shall fully attend any senate meeting in which Mission and Ministry-related legislation that is supported by a majority of the Mission and Ministry Committee is brought forth
 - d) A member shall be nominated by the Chair to maintain contact with appropriate student(s) enrolled at other Jesuit Universities and/or the Ignatian Solidarity Network.
 - E) The Chair shall fully attend any senate meeting in which Mission and Ministry-related legislation is brought forth by a majority of the members of the Mission and Ministry committee.
- 2) Act as a voice of the students of the University concerning matters related to the mission and ministry of the University, service leadership opportunities, and issues concerning global and local justice including, but not limited to:
 - i) Ensuring the Department of Campus Ministry meets the needs of the entire student body.
 - ii) Examining the University's allocation of resources, endowment record, and investment record to ensure that finances are used in a manner in accordance with the mission.
 - iii) Examining the opportunities for service and community engagement and promoting these to the student body
 - iv) Promoting discussion of the University mission inside the classroom

Senate Resolution (SR) 018-12
March 28th, 2012

Intent and Purpose: To encourage the University to officially sign the “St. Francis Pledge” to honor the Catholic Climate Covenant.

Whereas, The Catholic Climate Covenant’s St. Francis Pledge is a commitment to care for creation and the poor, and to encourage greater personal and shared engagement by the Catholic community to respond to the impacts of climate change,

Whereas, the Catholic Climate Covenant shares “good news about the ongoing and impressive ways in which the Catholic community is carrying out the Catholic Climate Covenant to honor our obligations toward God’s gift of creation,”

Whereas, the St. Francis Pledge has five components: pray, learn, assess, act, and advocate;

Whereas, twenty-seven national organizations have signed the pledge to date and actively support the Covenant, including the Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities,

Whereas, six other colleges and universities have signed the pledge,

Whereas, the St. Francis Pledge aligns with Saint Louis University’s Jesuit ideals by encouraging environmental stewardship and service to those who are most affected by climate change,

Therefore, let it be resolved that the Associated Students of the Saint Louis University Student Government Association urges the University to sign the St. Francis Pledge,

Furthermore, let it be resolved that the Association urges the University to engage the campus community to commit to environmental stewardship through both on-campus and off-campus activities,

Furthermore, let it be resolved that the Association urges the University to reaffirm the ideals of the pledge in its operations and programs.

Senate Bill (SB) – 066-12
March 28th, 2012

Intent and purpose: To provide Asian American Association with spot funding.

Whereas, the Student Government Association has the authority to allocate spot funding for Chartered Student Organizations,

Whereas, Asian American Association is a Chartered Student Organization,

Whereas, Asian American Association submitted a spot funding request of $671.64 for their trip to MAASU,

Whereas, it is the right of every Chartered Student Organization to submit a spot funding request,

Whereas, spot funding is reserved for “unforeseeable” financial burdens on Chartered Student Organizations,

Whereas, the Finance committee found sufficient need for funding based on the “unforeseeable” nature of this expense,

Whereas, the Finance committee recommends a spot funding allocation of $671.64 to Asian American Association.

Therefore, let it be enacted that Asian American Association receives a spot funding allocation of $671.64.

Associated Students of Saint Louis University
Student Government Association
Senate Resolution (SR) – 019-12
March 28th, 2012

Intent and purpose: To give approval of the Recommendation of the Mission and Ministry Committee to Enhance the Services of the Department of Campus Ministry.

Whereas, the Associated Students of Saint Louis University Student Government Association represents the entire student body.

Whereas, the Department of Campus Ministry “inspired by God’s love, the living tradition of the Catholic Church, and Ignatian spirituality, the mission of the Department of Campus Ministry at Saint Louis University is to help others cultivate a relationship with God that leads to personal authenticity, just social relationships, the loving pursuit of truth, and reverence of all of creation.” (Campus Ministry mission Statement, 11/5/2010).

Whereas, there is a significant portion of the student body who are not of a Christian religious affiliation.

Whereas, the Mission and Ministry committee believes there is a perception within the student body that the Department of Campus Ministry is solely for students of a Christian, or specifically Roman Catholic, religious affiliation.

Whereas, the Board of Trustees Mission and Ministry sub-committee is supportive of efforts to ensure students of all religious affiliations feel comfortable at SLU.

Whereas, the mission statement of Saint Louis University reads, “In support of its mission, the University...welcomes students, faculty and staff from all racial, ethnic and religious backgrounds and beliefs and creates a sense of community that facilitates their development as men and women for others.” (Saint Louis University Mission Statement, <http://www.slu.edu/x5021.xml>, 03/25/2012, emphasis added).

Whereas, the Mission and Ministry Committee believes that close proximity of students of all religious affiliations to campus ministry will lead to a perception of the Department of Campus Ministry as not only a service for students of a Christian or Roman Catholic religious affiliation, and will lead to a greater awareness of other faith traditions, enhanced education and a greater sense of community for all.

Therefore, let it be known that the Association Students of Saint Louis University’s Student Government Association endorses the following recommendation to enhance the services of the Department of Campus Ministry:

Recommendation to Enhance the Services of Campus Ministry

Summary:

The Mission and Ministry Student Task Force submits the following recommendations for the space on the second floor of Wuller Hall. These recommendations include using the second floor as a meeting, office, and prayer space for faith-based Chartered Student Organizations, including but not limited to: the Interfaith Alliance, Jewish Student Association, Muslim Student Association, Hindu Students Community, Theology Club, Knights of Columbus and Interservice Christian Fellowship. It is our belief that the reallocation of this space and its proximity to Campus Ministry will foster inter-religious dialogue and create an inclusive space for all faith traditions here at Saint Louis University. This space would not be reserved exclusively for the students in these organizations, but would be a reflective environment available to all students, faculty and staff.

Rationale:

The Department of Campus Ministry has a profound reach and depth within the student community and the Mission and Ministry Student Task Force acknowledges the solidarity of Campus Ministry with the student body and would like to enhance that relationship. Although in support of the efforts of the Department of Campus Ministry as a resource for all students, the Mission and Ministry student task force believes there is still a pervasive student attitude that Campus Ministry is only for Christian and Catholic students. We acknowledge their work in providing ministers of various faith traditions, and we see this space to be a continuation of existing efforts to create an inclusive and encompassing religious environment. Since there is a significant portion of the student population that would benefit from additional on-campus resources and knowledge of off-campus resources for non-Catholic faith traditions. In addition, the Mission and Ministry Student Task Force believes that increased interfaith dialogue and a communal space available to students enhances rather than reduces any faith tradition, including Christianity.

By providing space for faith-based student organizations of non-Catholic faith traditions, we believe the Department of Campus Ministry would be better equipped to live out the challenge presented in the Oath of Inclusion by providing adequate resources to a diversity of faith traditions, by embracing the tenet to “obtain greater knowledge when we consider the perspective of our fellow students... we begin to strive for a better world when we build a stronger community.” As a result of the close proximity of the space, members of various faith traditions would be able to dialogue and build an inclusive community. Providing additional space would allow students of all faiths to engage in constructive dialogue so as to grow in their own spirituality and faith traditions as well as encourage mutual development and understanding. It is our hope that having a singular space for students, faculty, and staff to constructively engage their faith would facilitate development as catalysts of inclusion in our increasingly multi-faith society.

Finally, part of our goal as a Jesuit University is to be ecumenical and create an inclusive community that supports our unique Jesuit Mission to “welcome students, faculty and staff from all racial, ethnic and religious backgrounds and beliefs and create a sense of community that facilitates their development as men and women for others.”

Other Jesuit Peer Institutions:

In the spirit of Jesuit family, the Mission and Ministry Student Task Force researched the services available for faith-based student organizations, specifically non-Christian student organizations, at other Jesuit peer institutions. Our research produced the following results:

1.) Loyola University of Chicago - <http://www.luc.edu/ministry/homeforallfaiths.shtml>

Loyola University of Chicago’s Department of Campus Ministry defines themselves as a “home for all faiths” by welcoming and serving students from a variety of faith traditions. Groups of various faith-traditions are housed in close proximity that automatically creates mutual consciousness which fosters collaboration, acceptance, education and community. Their Interfaith programs include a Interfaith Companions program that hosts several events throughout the year from dialogues and panel discussions, to films that explore issues of faith. “All students are encouraged to participate in worship and prayer in their own faith traditions, and to collaborate with all students, regardless of faith tradition, in service and other activities that bring students of various faith traditions together.”

2.) Georgetown University - <http://campusministry.georgetown.edu/programs/chaplains/>

Georgetown University’s Department of Campus Ministry provides chaplains for students that include various faith traditions, some of whom are on-campus.

3.) Boston College - <http://www.bc.edu/content/bc/offices/ministry/interfaith/66comm.html>

Boston College’s Department of Campus Ministry houses a multi-faith center that has a chapel which is used by different student groups, and for non-Catholic services. Additionally, the department hosts a program devoted to interfaith dialogue and service.

4.) Santa Clara University - <http://www.scu.edu/cm/getinvolved/ecumenicalinterfaith.cfm#faq5>

Santa Clara University’s Department of Campus Ministry houses a multi-faith sanctuary and non-Catholic campus ministers.

Thus, providing additional space for all faith-based student organizations at Saint Louis University would be a strong impetus in joining the efforts of other Jesuit peer institutions in offering services to students of all faith traditions, and encouraging dialogue and education between members of various faith traditions and backgrounds.

Procedure:

The Mission and Ministry Student Task Force recommends the second floor of Wuller Hall, which is currently used as student-space, classrooms, and administrative offices for the School of Law, be designated for use by faith-based student organizations of varying faith traditions when the School of Law is relocated to its new downtown location. This space will be used as office space for various faith-based chartered student organizations, with a larger office being designated as an Interfaith Community Office, and another which will provide a community area for all students. The Task Force recommends another space being designated as a common prayer area for all students, faculty or staff. This space could be used for reflection for various faith traditions. If initially designated to be used by faith-based student organizations, the Mission and Ministry Student Task Force will provide a detailed layout plan for the area of the building designated.

Other Points of Consideration:

- The various faith-based student organizations that would acquire meeting space would not necessarily be advised or report to the Department of Campus Ministry.
- These recommended changes would not compromise the Catholic identity of our Department of Campus Ministry but instead would enhance it through the spirit of the Vatican II document Nostra Aetate, that states “[The Catholic Church] regards with sincere reverence those ways of conduct and of life...[that] nonetheless often reflect a ray of that Truth which enlightens all men.”
- The Mission and Ministry Student Task Force recommends that current offices for Catholic Liturgy and Sacraments would not undergo changes, in order to retain the unique Catholic identity of the Department of Campus Ministry.
- The proposed changes would also be aligned with the President Obama’s Interfaith and Service Challenge, which has already begun to be implemented in various ways at Saint Louis University.
